Autumn Newsletter No 12—Thursday 30th November 2017

We have had a fantastic week practising for the Christmas productions. The children are doing really well—you are going to be very proud of them!

Thank you to everyone who came, helped out or donated to the Christmas Fair last Saturday. It was a wonderful community event and made lots of money for the PFA, which will go towards making the school a better place for your children.

We've got lots of fun coming up in the next few weeks at school in preparation for Christmas—Christmas Storytime, Christmas jumper day, Christmas lunch to name but a few things!

Useful Dates:

- Saturday 2nd Dec—11.45am Choir singing outside Apples and Pears.
- Tues 5th Dec—Year 1 parents to watch KS1 Christmas production 2pm
- Weds 6th Dec—Year R parents to watch YR R Christmas production 2pm
- Thurs 7th Dec—Year 2 parents to watch KS1 Christmas production 2pm
- Saturday 9th Dec—Christmas Concert—Community Choir and Junior School Choir 2.30pm—in aid of Dennis Ralph Foundation.

Stamps for Tadworth Children's Trust

Gill collects used stamps which go to The Tadworth Children's Trust to raise valuable funds. Please save your used stamps this Christmas (or even give Gill the whole envelope if that saves time) and bring them to the Office. Thank you!
